North & West Coast Links Golf

“An invitation from Shane Lowry”

What a season it has been for golf!

It is great to see that golf on the Island of Ireland is as busy and as popular as ever before, with more people coming back to golf, and visitors making the pilgrimage from all over the world to play the outstanding courses we have here.

We have a great history of golf in Ireland, a proud tradition, and everyone plays. When you visit our clubhouses, you get to mingle with the locals, have a chat, a pint and a laugh.

It is no accident that we have produced so many quality golfers in Ireland, it has been a record year on the European Tour, on the PGA Tour, on the LPGA Tour and on the Seniors Tour for our golfers, and I was very happy to take home the BMW Trophy from Wentworth. Our courses are a breeding ground for Amateur and Professionals alike.

I have also enjoyed great successes on the North & West Coast Links Member Courses too. I won the Irish Open at Co Louth as an Amateur in 2009, I played in the Irish Open at Royal Portrush, Portstewart and Ballyliffin and then I won The Open at Royal Portrush in 2019 – what a week that was, the crowds, the atmosphere – magical - I will never forget it!

I have played all the courses in the North & West Coast Links stable and they are all top drawer. One of my favourites is Enniscrone and as I said to the ‘No Laying Up’ guys, off the beaten track, probably the best course in Ireland.

Most of you will know that Ireland is not just about the golf. Our people are our best asset, we are hardworking, but we like to have some fun too. When you are planning a trip, make sure you mix it up with great hotels, take time to see the sights, listen to the music and chill out – we do have the best 19th hole in the world. Speaking of which, make sure you visit my own place, The “Old Warehouse” in Tullamore on your journey through Ireland. We have a great team there and proper Irish hospitality is guaranteed.

Make sure you take time to treat yourself and your friends to a golf vacation here in Ireland, you will have a great life experience, you will make fantastic memories and you will just have a great bit of craic doing it!

Portstewart GOLF CLUB

"My Favourite round of golf of all time"

"Nothing can prepare us for the majesty of the opening nine holes. Framed by the crashing waves of the Atlantic Ocean, the moody sky, rolling dunes and tricky manicured greens, this is a course that assaults the senses (in a very good way). It is also extremely challenging....we agree: this is our favourite round of golf – not just on the tour, but of all time".
